ST. LOUIS MATCH FOR PETE

The Mexican Reiterates His Desire to Meet Champion.

JEFFRIES IS INDIFFERENT

DON'T THINK IT WOULD PAY HIM FOR TROUBLE.

Will Jeffries and "Mexican Pete" get together in a four-round contest as a result of New Year's night's exhibition at the local athletic club. That is the burning question of the hour in local sports circles. Without doubt it would greatly raise the popularity of the champion, and the big fellow seems very indifferent in the matter.

"Mexican Pete" seems to be an insignificant person so far as Jeffries is concerned, and the champion has no intention of having to have no effect on him than water on a duck's back.

Pete, in the opinion of the champion, is the hero of the hour yesterday, and reiterated his statement of the night before that he would be only too willing to get a chance at the big fellow.

"I gave Tom a good beating the worst of it in three rounds," said Pete, "and he had to come to me to keep from being knocked out, and not a strike of any of the fellows, and they know it, and for this reason will not meet me."

This is how the champion stood last night. Pete is still anxious for the go, and the champion appears to care little about the matter. However, it is just possible that a match between these two worthies may be arranged, and the champion will be induced to believe that the match would draw enough to pay for his trouble in the matter.

Jeffries and Fitzsimmons said yesterday that they would probably remain in Salt Lake until the end of the month. This is done in order to give the Cornishman a hand a chance to get in shape before again taking to the ring.

Fitz and Jeff were shown a dispatch from Butte, coming from Clark, B. B., manager of the Cornishman, who said that Tommy Ryan would train Munroe, and the latter would challenge Jeffries for the championship of the world.

Both laughed, and Jeff said Munroe could not have $100 any time, and that he would stay in Salt Lake until he had a chance to see him.

"Tommy Ryan can train Munroe for a year, and teach him all he knows about the game and all that he can't know, then he can say that he is a champion, and I will be $1,000 that I can put him out inside of four rounds."

Several friends of Jeffries in the city yesterday were discussing the proposed match between "Mexican Pete" and Jeffries, and one of them said that he would try and arrange a private meeting between the two heavyweights. One of those who would be present would be Jeffries, and he would be in a closed room somewhere, and he would be in a closed room somewhere, and he would be in a closed room somewhere.

between Clifford and either one of these boys, as there certainly would be something doing. Sidney Lafontise, the younger brother of Mose, has made a wonderful improvement since his last appearance in this city about a year ago. If he improves as fast in the next year he will make as good a man in his class as his brother Mose is in welter-weight division.

CHANGES IN UNIFORMS

Army Board Makes a Number of Recommendations, Which Are Adopted.

Washington, Jan. 2.—The war department has made public the report of the uniform board headed by General Young, of which Colonel Patton was recorder, setting out in detail the changes made in the uniform of the army, some of which were seen for the first time at the White House reception yesterday.

The first recommendation of the board is that the uniform of the army should be required to be uniform during office hours. Other recommendations, all of which have been approved and which are consequently being put into effect, provide for the substitution of bronze sleeve ornaments for those of embroidery and metal for full dress.

Chaplains are to wear black overcoats.

The embroidered gold leaves on officers' visors must be off except on formal occasions.

The United States coat-of-arms is to be added to all shoulder knots of officers above captains. An important change is the abolition of the chapeau, the service helmet and service trousers for enlisted men. Provision is made for a combination sash and belt for brigadier generals.

A significant recommendation calls for a more detailed description of the shoes to be worn by officers, for it is rumored that the board's labors began as a result of the detection of an officer, otherwise properly uniformed, in dress, wearing a pair of russet shoes.

The board's labors were not confined to the shoes, but extended to the sleeves of the elbow and shoulders.

Other recommendations are that belts and cartridge cases be worn outside the overcoat; that a marching shoe shall be provided for the men and that the bureau of insular affairs shall have a device.

HOAR PRESENTS

Introduces Measure to Restrain Combinations.

PUBLICITY THE MAIN REMEDY

FAVORITISM IN PRICES IS MADE PUNISHABLE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Senator Hoar has completed and today made public the anti-trust bill which, before the senate adjourned for the holidays, he asked leave to introduce.

The bill goes to the committee on judiciary, of which Senator Hoar is chairman.

The bill declares that the act shall not repeal or limit anti-trust laws now on the statute books. Under section 2, the attorney general is authorized to employ any professional or other assistance which may be deemed necessary or desirable to prosecute offenses under the act, or under the acts before mentioned or to be investigated in the future.
